ISC President Luis Navarro

CALLS FOR BIDS

TO HOST THE

14TH INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY OF CITRICULTURE CONGRESS IN 2020

A bid should be submitted to ISC President Luis Navarro by October 1st 2012 for consideration at the next Executive Committee meeting held during the ISC Congress 18-23 November 2012 in Valencia, Spain. No bids will be accepted after this date without written approval from President Navarro.

For consideration, bids should include: (a) demonstrated buy-in from the growers, researchers, and industry individuals in various segments of the country's citrus industry; (b) evidence of a strong financial plan with an indication of whether government support will be available; (c) overview of the country's citrus industry; (d) the proposed venue for the Congress, with details of the quality of the meeting facilities, affordability, quality and closeness of an adequate number of hotels, and what attendees will be able to see and do with regard to the citrus industry and local attractions as a part of pre- and mid- and post-congress tours.

If the bid is complete, a representative(s) from the country submitting the bid should be prepared to be invited to make a short video or powerpoint presentation highlighting the above information at the Executive Committee meeting held during the ISC Congress in Valencia, Spain. Should the country win the bid, they should be prepared to make a similar presentation to the entire ISC membership at the closing session of the Congress.

Bids should be sent via e-mail by OCTOBER 1st 2012 to ISC President Luis Navarro: Inavarro@ivia.es.
